Rinmicit Temlong is a Researcher and Development Practitioner. Her areas of interest are Gender, Climate Change, Conflict and Education. She holds a Master's Degree in International Relations and Strategic Studies.

She is the founder and Executive Director of We Unite Foundation and is the convener of a Mentoring Club called Mentor Monday. We Unite Foundation also has programme called 'My Safe Space.' My safe space creates safe spaces within Religious Institutions for victims of abuse (Women and Girls also boys as the case maybe) to speak up. The programme also equips the Institutions to take ownership of the programme. Also the programme involves and carries men along through the concept of Positive Masculinity. To end Violence Against Women and Girls we need to carry the Men and involve them in the process.

WE-UNITE FOUNDATION is a registered Non-Governmental Organisation which aims to promote the culture and values of human dignity addressing the challenges and evils of gender and domestic-based violence. Thereby promoting justice, equity and self-reliance as it works with women, girl-child, and people with disabilities by transforming lives and community for peaceful cohesion.

The organisation ENVISIONS a peaceful and just world with respect for human dignity and inclusive society. Its mission is to transform lives through strengthened human and community cohesion for an equitable and inclusive society.

WE-UNITE FOUNDATION operates on a tripod work streams for the effective delivery of its mission. It aims TO UNITE for empowerment thus REDUCE challenges to STRENGTHEN capacities. These operational tripods are:

TO UNITE in ending gender-based violence through advocacy, girl-child education and women empowerment

TO REDUCE the risks of climate change through advocacy, tree-planting, waste-management, environment-conservation and poverty reduction schemes through social enterprise.

TO STRENGTHEN capacities of women and youths in addressing environmental, social, political and economic issues that affect them.
