Adenike Jennifer Emiola Iyiola Founder/President of Nigerian Professional Working Women (NPWW), hails from Ekiti State. She has her Bachelor of Science degree in Civil Engineering and Master's degree in Land surveyor. She has worked with prominent construction companies such as, Sageto Construction Company in Lagos, worked with Gilmore Engineering Nigeria Ltd, and Alora Engineering Company, all in Abuja. She's the founder of ADENIKE CHARITY FOUNDATION (ACF), National Secretary for Council for Renewable Energy Nigeria (CREN), C.E.O of NIAKK International Business Limited, Chicago, IL. USA & Nigeria, C.E.O of NHH Solution Limited, C.E.O of NIAD Construction Nigeria Limited and Author/ Writer of NPWW MAGAZINE.

From the beginning, she has always been passionate about women empowerment, professionally, politically and socially. She believes in a strong and collaborative power of professional women, and in making a positive impact on the future of our great country Nigeria. As a result, she decided to invite women of like-mind to form the Nigerian Professional Working Women (NPWW), the premier of such organization in Nigeria. I'm happy to report that, with the collective efforts of others and myself, NPWW has continued to grow with every passing day. Nigeria Professional Working Women, is a great opportunity for all of us professional women, to finally realize our dreams, improve on our already achieved goals, and to be a positive force in shaping the future of our nation. Thank you all, for your continued determination and efforts to strengthen the Nigerian Professional Working Women (NPWW)

ALL WOMEN, TOGETHER WE RISE
