

Jiritmwa Morgak Goyit

jiritfwen@yahoo.com

Goyit, Jiritmwa Morgak is a young woman who has shown considerable passion and commitment to issues of gender equality and women/Youth empowerment. She has also proven to be honest, hardworking and open to learning new things. Her approach to issues and the candor with which she debate or discuss matters of public interest has earned her a reputation as a principled and dodged social advocate particularly for the poor and underprivileged.

She has over the years demonstrated leadership qualities amongst her peers as she was a one time student union leader in the University of Jos. A pioneer member of the Nigerian Youth Parliament and a community mobilizer which earned her a State NYSC Honors Award during her service year for her ability to mobilize funds for a heart surgery of a two year old born with a hole in the heart. Numerous radio and Television appearance to discuss emerging issues that have to do with girls/women and youths. Served in various committee of her political party at the state and National level.

Jiritmwa having attended a wide range of trainings, workshops and programs, including the 2016 women campaign school at Yale university, U.S.A, a fellow of the Young Aspirant Leadership Fellowship (YALF), Center for Democracy and Development and has ran for elected office in Plateau state hinged on a deep sited desire to be an agent of transformation and to deliver on the promise of good governance and quality leadership. She has initiated moves that led to peaceful match to government and non-government offices to demand for action, justice or answers from relevant authorities. Led several visits to camps of internally displaced persons, call for justice for rape victims, call for actions against killings in Plateau State etc.

She is open to learning and willing to impart and Share experiences with others haven obtained a master's degree in Gender and Women's studies University of Jos and the Plateau State Coordinator for Youth Alliance for Democratic Advancement, Women in Politics forum, Secretary Nigerian League of Women Voters Plateau state.